DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "the recess" in line 9. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 7 recites the limitation "the passageway" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 5-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Pletcher (5,322,435). Pletcher shows an orthodontic bracket 10 comprising a body 11c having a lingual surface 13 for attachment to a tooth and defining an archwire slot 20 extending mesiodistally across the body. A shutter 12 is couple to the body and movable relative thereto between an open position and a closed position. A coil spring 91 is positioned in a recess 90 in the body and provides a force to bias the shutter in the open or closed position (see Fig. 18). As to claim 6, recess 23 in the body engages and hold the shutter in the open position (see Fig. 10). As to claim 7, the shutter slides in passageway 23.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-4 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
